

from the time the said cause of action accrued and unless the claim is so presented within ninety days after the cause of action accrued, and unless suit is instituted within twelve months after the cause of action accrued any claim thereon shall be barred."

SEC. 2. That the provisions of this act shall be applicable to any such action against the city that has heretofore accrued and upon which suit has not been instituted and ninety days from the ratification of this act is hereby determined as a reasonable time for the presentation of such claims to the board of aldermen, provided, however, this shall not be construed as extending the present statute of limitation to any action which would otherwise be barred.

SEC. 3. That all laws or clauses of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

SEC. 4. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

Ratified this the 18th day of March, A.D. 1929.

Time within which suit must be brought.

Applies to claims outstanding upon which no suit has been brought.

Statute of limitations not extended.

Conflicting laws repealed.
